We will continue to nurture talent for Macau's tourism industry and help develop the city into a tourism education and training base in the Greater Bay Area."

Loi Hao Ngai has been working at MGM for nearly two years. She was thrilled that she stood out from the many elites and took home the Gold Pin, "I am grateful for the support from the Company and my colleagues. After receiving months of training and making considerable effort to improve myself, I managed to win the gold award amid intense competition. It is well worth the effort. The competition is so wonderful that I have acquired new knowledge and skills from both the training and the contest. The competition also allows me to have a better hold of information for tourists in Macau.”

MORS was launched in 2001 as a joint effort of the Tourism Industry of Macao and IFT, with the main objective to upgrade human resources in the industry through the introduction of a certification scheme for a number of hospitality and tourism professions.
