

MGM Participates in Singapore Mega Roadshow

Showcasing the Lion-themed Booth to Attract Singaporeans to Macau

To expand international source markets and entice more Singaporeans to visit Macau, MGM proactively participates in the mega roadshow held by the Macao Government Tourism Office (MGTO) at Suntec City Atrium (Convention Centre), Singapore from April 25 to 28. The Company has brought a series of attractive accommodation promotions and event details of Macau to Singaporean participants – with a view to showcasing Macau’s captivating “Tourism+” elements overseas, and further enriching Macau’s position as the “World Center of Tourism and Leisure”.

The booth of this roadshow features the lion emblem of MGM, also in line with Singapore's nickname of "Lion City". At the center of the booth sits a colorful Capsule Toy Machine where visitors can participate in the gashapon game and win rich offerings such as accommodation discounts, along with Macau-designed souvenirs. Besides, MGM's mascot Leo also makes an eye-catching appearance at the booth, drawing many on-site visitors for photo opportunities. Furthermore, the accommodation offer comes with both Macau LRT and MGM “Macau Cruise” tickets, encouraging Singaporean visitors to embark on the creative “Barra CityWalk” route and get around Macau’s World Heritage sites. This experience synergizing "culture + tourism + transportation" enables visitors to enjoy Macau’s unique charm through leisurely strolls in the city.

MGM has embraced the core value of "originality and innovation", constantly introducing fresh initiatives to cater to various tastes and needs of visitors. This time, MGM delivers the latest trendy information to Singapore, demonstrating the Company’s fascinating array of cultural and entertainment happenings. They include the unprecedented residency show MGM 2049 in collaboration with world-renowned Chinese filmmaker Zhang Yimou; the Barra District Revitalization Series which leverages the appeal of cultural tourism; the poetic contemporary art exhibition - “Liu Ye: at High Peak” Debut Exhibition in Macau; awarding-winning food & beverage offerings recognized by Forbes and Michelin, and more.
